

When people arrive at your table

- ✓ Ask people to order something so that we can keep up good relations with this restaurant since they are letting us use their space.
- ✓ Ask people to place their food and drink orders before the discussion starts so that the discussion won't be interrupted as much.

Once the food and drinks have been ordered let everyone know...

Our main intention is not to try to get through all of the questions, but to provide a balanced discussion where everyone has a chance to speak.

We only have two rules

- respect for everyone at the table, and one person talking at a time (during the facilitated portion).

Interjecting

- In order to avoid anyone from dominating the discussion, just raise your hand if you would like to speak. That way, everyone (including the facilitator) knows that you have something to say.

Okay, let's get started!

Around the table question:

People answer the question from left to right ending with the person who asked it.

WARM UP QUESTIONS always help build respect at the table...

What intrigued you about this topic and what would you like to get out of this discussion?

Which of the Food For Thought videos was the most interesting to you, and why? (See page 2 with videos)

Who is one of your favourite evil characters from a movie and why? (i.e. a villain)

... now that we're warmed up...

Who is one of your favourite heroic characters from a movie and why?

Why do you believe that there are so many movies, books, etc. made with good and evil themes?

What makes someone a good person in your opinion?

What makes someone or something evil in your opinion?

... if there's time...

Where do you get your morality from? (i.e. religion, your parents, etc.)

Do you believe that you are a good person? If so, why?

(Ask your own question related to the topic but not listed here)

AFTER 90 MINUTES:

Feel free to stick around as long as you like. If there are multiple tables for this event then you are encouraged to move to other tables to mix and mingle.

Conversations are no longer limited to the topic.

All members are encouraged to watch at least one Food for Thought video prior to attending our events in order to provide inspiration and common starting points for the discussions to follow.
